Ristorante da Motosega

PITIGLIANO

Pitigliano is a stunning hilltop town in southern Tuscany, known for its dramatic cliffs of tufo rock and ancient architecture. Its unique charm lies in the fusion of Etruscan, medieval, and Jewish heritage. Often called "Little Jerusalem," the town has a historic Jewish quarter with a restored synagogue, as well as narrow alleys, cave dwellings, and panoramic views over the surrounding countryside. Pitigliano is also famous for its local wines and traditional dishes.

MUST VISIT PLACES

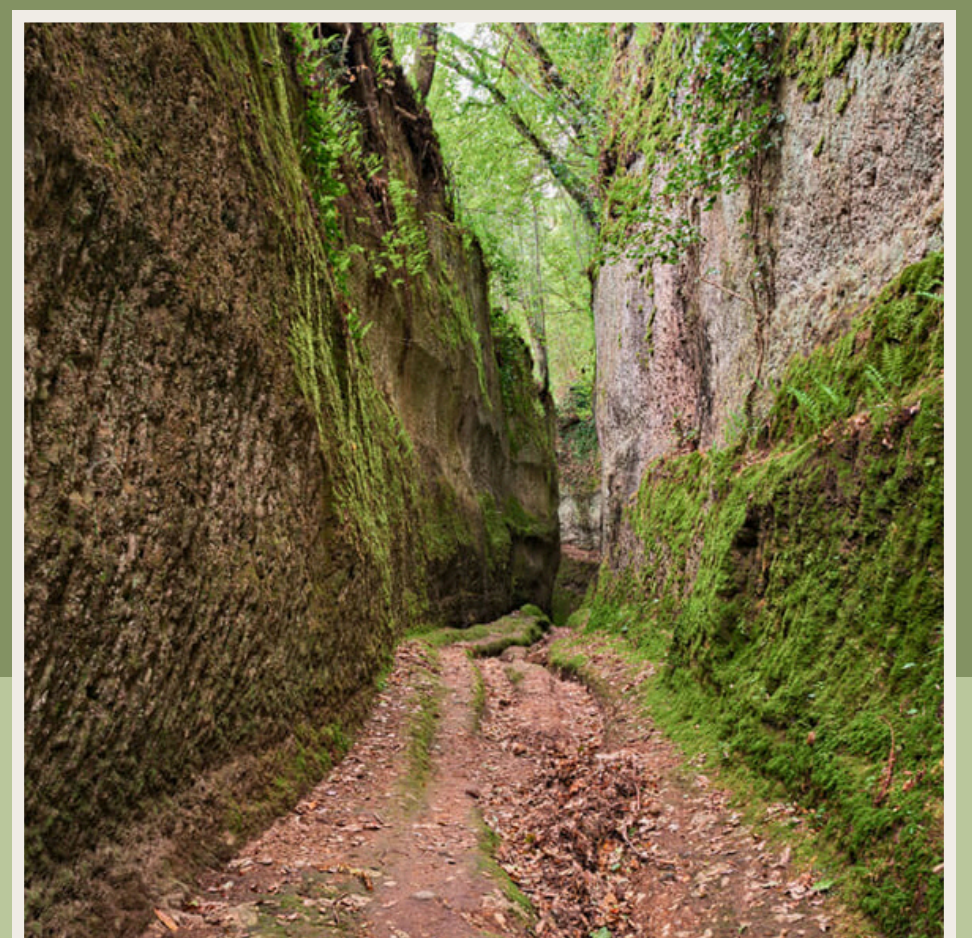

- VISIT THE JEWISH QUARTER
- GUIDED TOUR OF EUROPOMICE
- ETRUSCAN VIE CAVE

Pitigliano's cuisine reflects the rustic flavors of the Maremma region. A signature dish is acquacotta, a hearty vegetable soup with stale bread, olive oil, and a poached egg. You will also find dishes like pappardelle al cinghiale and sfratto, a traditional Jewish pastry filled with honey, walnuts, and spices.
